“Happiness is not in money, but in shopping.” — Marilyn Monroe

That quote rings true when describing Brandon’s unique gift shopping scene—especially when you dig a little deeper than the big box stores, which of course are solid options as well. We all know it can be a grind trying to find the right present for someone. No worries folks. Brandon is loaded with options.

You’ll find a large selection of household goods and giftware for the whole family at Livingstone Outdoor [1610 Byng Avenue]. Home to items from many local creators and includes home decor, antiques, drinkware, Next up is I Want That Stuff [1608 Park Avenue]. This place is a gamer’s dream! This neat spot sells everything from board games, retro video games and Magic the Gathering.

Another neat local spot is The Little Shoppe [731 18th Street]. This gift shop has it all from cards, clothing, purses and candles. So much to choose from for your special someone!

a taste of Brandon

Ice cream is awesome. That's it. That's the extent of this opening paragraph. Brandon has a ton of great treat options but here are four great options when you're visiting our city!

Basically anything at Crow's General Store [33 - 17th Street East] - So Crow's recently introduced it's now serving Prairie West Ice Cream. What does that mean? Well, 24 flavours to choose from - and many are your favs you've had before.

Taste's Ice Cream and Grill (seasonal) [1405 - 1st Street] - Literally, anyone who goes here, loves it. Make sure to try the ice cream sandwich. Yeah, they're homemade and they're freakin' fantastic.

The Sweet Tooth of Brandon [839 - 18th Street] - A locally-owned frozen yogurt place in the city. They 'swirl' different flavours, including a kind called 'Death by Chocolate'. Sooo good!

Velvet Dip (seasonal) [820 Victoria Avenue] - Check out their website and you'll see an old black and white photo of a Beatles-looking band playing on their rooftop, which obviously was taken many moons ago. This place not only has a lot of history, but a lot of awesome specialties including the Miss Piggy. Yep, you read that right!

Chez Angel Bakery & Café

great nightlife spots in Brandon

It's not difficult to find great hot spots to enjoy an adult bevvie or experience some live music in Brandon...

Here's just a few great locales to enjoy some time with friends after hours...

Chez Angela Bakery & Café [1126 - 10th Street, Unit C] - By now, the majority of Brandonites have a pretty good idea what this from-scratch, local-first bakery and café has to offer and it's not just their delicious pastries. This neat downtown spot consistently has great live music events basically every week.

Section 6 Brewing [1126 Princess Ave] - Ever since this microbrewery opened up in this city, it's been rockin' with hosting events, karaoke, singles mixers and much more. They've also partnered with the local arts community and have some really cool art pieces on their walls to check out as well.

The 40 [210 - 18th Street North] - An oldie but a goodie is The 40 in Brandon. They like to consider themselves Brandon's best nightclub - and that's certainly up for debate but you can't go wrong here. Good times, great food and some of the very best local, national and international talent on stage on weekends.

Lady of the Lake [135 - 17th Street North] - From open mic nights to some fantastic talents performing live, you should probably make your way to the Lady. So many great local talents perform here!

Black Wheat Brewing [402 - 10th Street] - From the Empire Ale to the Blue Hills Brew, there's a ton of awesome brew options for folks to try at Black Wheat! Neat fact: The Empire Ale was named in honour of the last surviving brewery in Brandon, which closed back in 1931.

Of course, we're missing some places! We can't list them all here. You can find a full listing of Brandon's hot spots, neat restos and pubs by visiting brandontourism.com!

National Indigenous Peoples Day

There is so much we can learn about the earth we stand upon, from the perspective that Indigenous history and culture provides.

The mission statement is clear: to unwaveringly work towards reconciliation through presenting locally-sourced educational materials about the ongoing Indigenous history of Brandon and provide novel learning experiences that create unity, solidarity and community across cultures.

Brandon Indigenous Tourism is about changing perspectives and preserving Indigenous culture, languages and community however possible. It's about reclaiming Indigenous space in history both ancient and modern via providing an Indigenous lens for the public. It's about inviting others to learn, share and celebrate in Indigenous ways of being, knowing and learning.

The methods of sourcing information are done as locally as possible, developed with knowledge keepers and elders in the area. All information provided to you is Indigenous-sourced and Indigenous-evaluated. There are several brochures available at the Brandon & Region Tourism Centre [1-545 Conservation Drive] to help educate you on our land and our peoples.

You can also immerse yourself in the cultural diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis people during National Indigenous Peoples Day celebrations [June 21], a long-standing tradition of honouring the summer solstice. Head to Brandon Riverbank to celebrate Canada's deepest roots with powwow demonstrations, traditional drummers, square dancers, hoop dancers, throat singers, and local Métis entertainers—as well as cultural displays, a tipi village, craft tables, and much more!

Commonwealth Air Training Plan Museum

Explore Brandon's museums to immerse yourself in the local, regional, and national storylines that helped to shape the city. Brandon's museums offer something for everyone!

Make your way to the Commonwealth Air Training Plan Museum, [300 Commonwealth Way] Canada's only air museum dedicated solely to those who trained and fought for the British Commonwealth during World War III! While you're there, make sure you stop by the RCAF WWII Memorial that commemorates the approximately 19,000 lives lost in WWII.

Check out the Daly House Museum [122-18th Street] for a guided tour through the municipal heritage site and original home of Brandon's first mayor Thomas Mayne Daly. How about a deep dive into various aspects of city history at the Brandon General Museum & Archives [19-9th Street]! This spot has a lot of cool taxidermy to check out and an extensive archive of items dating back to Brandon's origins.

Another neat stop is the historic Brandon Armoury, the 26th Field Regiment RCA / XII Manitoba Dragoons Museum [1116 Victoria Avenue], which exhibits a variety of military artifacts and memorabilia!

Last but certainly not least, experience the RCA Museum [N-118 Patricia Road, CFB Shilo] and check out one of Canada's award-winning national artillery museums! This Manitoba star attraction, located approximately 15 minutes from Brandon, is full of interactive exhibits, audio presentations and much more from WWII to present day.

Temporary exhibits ensure that visitors see something new each time they visit. There's also an outdoor Gun Park featuring 40 artillery pieces and vehicles and picnic area.

The Commonwealth Air Training Plan Museum is also home to The RCAF WWII Memorial which commemorates the approx. 19,000 lives lost in the second world war. It serves as lasting recognition of the ultimate sacrifice made by those who trained in the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan (BCATP). This 300-foot airfoil-shaped granite wall is watched over by a bronze airman. The names and ages of these young men and women have been etched on this wall as a permanent tribute to the ultimate sacrifice they made for our freedom. The wall was unveiled on September 10, 2014 – the 75th anniversary Canada's entry into WWII. There is no fee to visit the wall, and it provides a wonderful spot for remembrance and contemplation.

Here are a few notable provincial parks to explore near Brandon...

learn some history at Criddle/Vane Homestead

This 130-hectare area preserves the former homestead of two prominent Manitoba families. Known for their contributions in the fields of science, art, sport and culture, the Criddle and Vane families originally settled here in 1882.

The park provides you with two hiking trails that take you past the former Criddle home site which was the first entomological field station in Western Canada, a cemetery, as well as the remains of the original landscape features such as the tennis court and golf course.

enjoy Oak Lake

Oak Lake is one of the larger lakes in the region, offering exceptional fishing and water sports. Oak Island Resort features a world class 18-hole golf course with a pro shop and restaurant (seasonal). The campground has a plethora of serviced lots, a grocery store, ice cream, cabin rentals, mini-golf and swimming pools.

The provincial park offers beach volleyball, baseball diamonds, basketball courts, horseshoe pits, fire pits, a children's playground, covered picnic shelters, washrooms and a sandy beach. Meanwhile, Cherry Point Park offers a one-kilometre natural walking trail with benches facing the lake, so if you get tired, you can take a break or just sit and take in the beauty of the lake.

time to beach it up at Rivers Provincial Park

Made up of 38 hectares of mixed grass prairie, this park is situated by Lake Wahtopanah. The lake, a reservoir created by damming the Little Saskatchewan River, was named after the native word "watopapinah" meaning "canoe people".

The community of Rivers was named after Sir Charles River Wilson, Chairman of the Grand

Lake Audy Bison Enclosure at Riding Mountain National Park

Trunk Pacific Railway Board of Directors. The park is home to a popular beach and provides ample fishing for pike, walleye and perch.

go hiking at Spruce Woods Provincial Park

This park offers a unique sand dune environment where endangered wildlife species such as Western Hognose Snake and Northern Prairie Skinks can be found. Interpretive and hiking trails lead across rolling hills, mixed grass prairie, through white spruce and deciduous forest and to the eerie spring fed ponds of the Devil's Punchbowl.

The park features camping facilities, unsupervised beach, horseback riding trails, interpretive programs and special events throughout the summer. For winter enthusiasts, the park has an extensive system of cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and snowmobile trails as well as an outdoor skating oval, rink and toboggan hill.
