location

Situated in the southwest corner of the province of Manitoba,

Brandon is very close to the geographical centre of North America. Brandon is the second largest city in Manitoba with a population of approximately 49,000 and a trading area of 180,000 people. It is located 197 km (130 miles) west of Winnipeg, 365 km (225 miles) east of Regina and 100 km (60 miles) north of the United States border.

time zone

In Manitoba, daylight savings time begins at 2 a.m. local time on the second Sunday in March. On the first Sunday in November, daylight savings time ends at 2 a.m. local time. During daylight savings time, clocks are turned ahead one hour.

climate

The summer season ranges from May to September with daytime temps from 12°C (54°F) to 26°C (79°F). The months of November through February usually have considerable amounts of snow and temperatures below freezing. The area enjoys over 2,000 hours of sunshine per year.

currency

The currency used in Brandon is the Canadian dollar. It is recommended that visitors exchange their currency at a bank or foreign exchange outlet prior to their visit.

Lady of the Lake: A Brandon Boutique Brimming with Charm

There's shopping, and then there's Lady of the Lake—a boutique in Brandon that feels more like a destination than a store. Stepping inside, visitors are greeted with an eclectic mix of fashion, accessories, home décor, and gifts that are as unique as the city itself. Every shelf tells a story, every display sparks curiosity, and every visit offers the chance to discover something unexpected—whether it's a handcrafted piece of jewelry, a whimsical décor item, or a stylish wardrobe find you didn't know you needed.

But Lady of the Lake is more than its carefully curated selection—it's the experience that keeps people coming back. The boutique's welcoming atmosphere encourages shoppers to take their time, explore at leisure, and chat with staff who know their products and the local community inside out. Whether you're seeking the perfect gift for someone special, a keepsake to remember your trip, or just a few hours of retail adventure, Lady of the Lake makes every visit feel personal, memorable, and fun.

For visitors to Brandon, this boutique offers a glimpse into the city's creative and vibrant local culture. It's a place where style meets personality, where each item tells a story, and where shopping becomes an exploration of the unexpected. More than a store, Lady of the Lake is a cornerstone of Brandon's charm – a must-visit stop for anyone looking to take home not just a souvenir, but a piece of the city itself.

art + culture

CREATIVE IS always in season

Bold, contemporary, and deeply connected to place, the Art Gallery of Southwestern Manitoba (AGSM) is one of Brandon's cultural standouts.

Located downtown, this striking gallery invites visitors to experience rotating exhibitions that spotlight contemporary art from Manitoba, across Canada, and beyond—often highlighting Indigenous and regional voices that reflect the spirit of the prairies.

With bright, open galleries and ever-changing shows, no two visits are the same. Thought-provoking installations, vibrant paintings, and multimedia works encourage exploration and conversation, making AGSM as engaging for casual visitors as it is for dedicated art lovers. Best of all, admission is free, making it an easy and accessible stop while exploring the city.

Beyond exhibitions, the AGSM buzzes with creativity through hands-on studios offering ceramics, printmaking, photography, and more. Visitors can also browse the gallery shop, filled with unique, locally made art and gifts—perfect souvenirs that support Manitoba artists.

Whether you're seeking inspiration, a quiet cultural escape, or a deeper connection to the region's creative pulse, the Art Gallery of Southwestern Manitoba delivers an enriching experience that adds colour, perspective, and creativity to any Brandon itinerary.

Adventure to Understanding indigenous tourism FIRST peoples

Brandon is a place where Indigenous culture is vibrant, present, and deeply rooted in the land.

The city invites visitors to engage with living culture through celebration, art, and storytelling. Each year, National Indigenous Peoples Day brings the Riverbank Discovery Centre to life with powwow dancing, drumming, songs, traditional foods, and hands-on cultural experiences. In September, Truth and Reconciliation Week offers meaningful opportunities for reflection and learning through ceremonies, educational events, and community gatherings that honour survivors and promote understanding. From joyful celebration to thoughtful reflection, Indigenous experiences in Brandon offer authentic encounters that deepen understanding, invite respect, and add powerful meaning to any visit.

Commonwealth Air Training Plan Museum

history + heritage EXPLORE the past

Brandon's museums

Step into history at the Commonwealth Air Training Plan Museum, a hidden gem in Brandon where Canada's wartime past takes flight. Housed in a restored World War II hangar, the museum showcases a collection of historic aircraft that trained thousands of aircrew during the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

Walk among these impressive planes, explore wartime artifacts, and discover personal stories of the young pilots and crew who prepared here before heading overseas. Perfect for families, history enthusiasts, and curious travelers, the museum offers a memorable glimpse into Brandon's vital role in a global story.

The Daly House Museum immerses visitors in Victorian life with historic rooms and personal stories of Brandon's pioneers. Nearby, the Brandon General Museum & Archives preserves the city's history through artifacts and photographs. Meanwhile, just outside the city, the RCA Museum in Shilo offers a fascinating look at Canada's artillery history with displays of historic weaponry and military life. Together, they bring the region's past vividly to life.

Brandon Hills – your outdoor escape

Just minutes from the city, Brandon Hills is a nature lover's playground. Explore winding trails, take in breathtaking lookout views, and enjoy a refreshing escape into rolling forests and open spaces. Whether you're hiking, biking, or simply soaking up the scenery, Brandon Hills offers a perfect blend of adventure, relaxation, and fresh-air fun for visitors of all ages.

be active LEISURELY pastimes

No need to travel far to take a break from the fast-paced hustle and bustle of city life! Brandon offers plenty of opportunity to be active or to connect with nature right in the city or only a few minutes away!

Assiniboine
Food Forest

Did you know...

Big, old-growth woods and riparian vistas dominate this jewel among Brandon's green spaces. Assiniboine Food Forest is a 40-acre permaculture preserve dedicated to nature education, ecosystem restoration, and food security. Nature trails through forest, prairie, and wetland habitats connect to the adjacent Crow's General Store. It's open year-round to learners of all ages. Services available in French as well. Scan the QR code for more info!

Brandon Riverbank DOWN BY THE riverside

Where the Assiniboine River winds through the heart of Brandon, adventure awaits at every turn.

Stroll, run, or cycle along scenic trails, pause at lookout points, and watch for local wildlife in their natural habitat. Stop by the Riverbank Discovery Centre to experience wildlife displays, activities for kids and don't forget to pick up a souvenir while you're there! Summer sparkles with outdoor concerts, events, and riverside picnics, while the winter transforms the Riverbank into a snow-covered playground. Fat biking, snowshoeing, and cross-country skiing offer thrilling ways to explore the sparkling trails, making even chilly days feel like an adventure.

From tranquil strolls to heart-pumping outdoor fun, the Brandon Riverbank is where the city meets the great outdoors.
